Barger Coporation Announces Data Communications Scholarships

Palm Beach, FL (rushprnews) July 25, 2007- Dr. Gerry Waterson, Chairman of the Board of Barger Corporation (www.barger-corp.com) has announced the establishment of perpetual scholarships for students interested in pursuing careers in the data communications field.

Ten full scholarships will be awarded annually that will cover full expenses for four years of study. Details of the program will be announced shortly. It will be open to students attending or planning to attend colleges within the United States. Also available will be interships for scholarship recipients to work for the company during the summer months.

The scholarships will be funded jointly by Barger Corporation and the Waterson Family Trust.

The Barger Corporation is headquartered in Palm Beach, Florida and has offices in various states and countries.

The Waterson Family Trust has been involved with several philanthropic programs and is based in Chestertown, MD.
