Celebrity Mother's Day Survey From omg! on Yahoo! Reveals Which Famous Moms are Hot and Who's Not

May 4, 2011

SUNNYVALE, Calif. (RPRN) 05/04/11 — The number one celebrity news site names Angelina Jolie the hottest celebrity mom; Sandra Bullock the hottest single mom; and Jessica Alba hottest baby bump

Angelina Jolie narrowly beat out Halle Berry to win the title of hottest celebrity mom according to a new Mother's Day survey from omg! on Yahoo!, the number one celebrity news website (http://omg.yahoo.com/blogs/goddess/hot-mamas/651). Omg! on Yahoo! (http://omg.yahoo.com) asked 2,000 people to pick the hottest celebrity mom, hottest celebrity baby bump, celebrity mom they would most want to date, celebrity mom with the best advice, and celebrity mom they would not want to leave their children with.

Mother Knows Best

With 43 percent of the vote, Sandra Bullock beats out the competition as the celebrity mom adults most want as their own mom. The actress even beat out America's First Mom, First Lady Michelle Obama, who came in second place with only 18 percent of the vote.

While Michelle Obama came in second place for celebrity mom adults would most want to be their mom, Hillary Clinton is voted the number one celebrity mom adults would want to turn to for advice. Hillary has over 25 percent of the overall vote and 35 percent of the male vote; more women however, would turn to mom Reese Witherspoon if they need support.

Mommy Hotness

Penelope Cruz wins the top spot for best post-baby body, receiving more than 50 percent of the overall vote and earning more than twice the votes of second-place pick, reality star Kourtney Kardashian.

When it comes to new, mom style, Halle Berry beat out Jennifer Lopez by more than a quarter of adults surveyed.

Hot Baby Bumps

Jessica Alba claimed the top spot as the hottest baby bump with nearly half of all men surveyed lending Jessica their votes. Oscar-winner Natalie Portman and Kate Hudson ranked second and third place respectively. Other popular stars including Victoria Beckham, Pink and Jewel received the lowest number of votes.

M.I.L.D. - Mom I'd Like to Date

Sandra Bullock is a hit with men, particularly men ages 35 and up, winning the most votes for celebrity mom they want to date. Bullock was selected over other hot single celebrity moms including Halle Berry, Denise Richards and Kate Winslet by a third of the men surveyed.

Girls Night Out

Tied for first place for celebrity mom adults would most want to hit the town with are Gwen Stefani and Christina Aguilera, with more men choosing Christina and more women choosing Gwen. These celebrity moms beat out superstar Madonna, party girl Kendra Wilkinson and socialite Kris Jenner (who only received 6 percent of the vote).

Celebrity Play Date

Dads picked Angelina Jolie and her children to have a play date with, while moms preferred Jennifer Garner and her daughters.

Shiloh Jolie-Pitt, daughter of Angelina Jolie and Brand Pitt, is the celebrity child adults are most eager to see as a grown-up. A quarter of adults are also excited to see Suri Cruise, daughter of Katie Holmes and Tom Cruise, as an adult.

Not on my Watch

Lindsay Lohan was voted the number one celebrity who parents would not want as their child's friend. Lohan received the highest vote (about 50 percent) from young mom (age 18-34) who are adverse to the star spending time with their children. Lohan beat out second place pick, Jersey Shore's Nicole "Snooki" Polizzi.

Despite having two children of her own, parents selected Britney Spears as the celebrity mom they would least likely have babysit their children. Thirty-six percent of dads aged 18-34 selected her as the ultimate nightmare babysitter over Courtney Love and "Octomom" Nadia Suleyman.
