November 6, 2011

EVANSVILLE, IN (RPRN) 11/06/11 — Pro Sports Jersey has announced the launching their re-vamped website which allows sports fans to comparison shop for their favorite player's jerseys. The site operates by providing valuable information to buyers and using eBay and Amazon.com links that enable shoppers to locate the best deal. Pro Sports Jersey also and offers biographical information on some of the world's best pro athletes to help buyers decide which jersey to buy from among thousands offered each year.

The website is set up to allow customers to conveniently shop by team for their favorite NFL, MLB, NBA or NHL jersey. Banners on the left side of the page open to hundreds of jerseys and team apparel items, organized by team.

There are also dozens of articles highlighting the most popular jerseys in the four major North American pro sports (baseball, basketball, football and hockey). Aaron Rodgers jerseys are currently tops on the list of hot NFL jerseys and the site offers numerous links to home, away and throwback team jerseys for sale on eBay. Those who aren't sure which player's jersey to buy can read through career highlights for past and present players who have made their mark on the games.

Buying authentic or replica NFL jerseys can sometimes be confusing since sizing is slightly different than your normal apparel, and Pro Sports Jersey includes a jersey size chart for men's, women's and kids jerseys made available by online merchants throughout North America.

It doesn't matter who you root for. Whether shopping for yourself or another sports fan, Pro Sports Jersey is the ultimate one stop shop for all jersey needs. Pro Sports Jersey does not stock any merchandise but instead provides an outlet for shoppers to take advantage of the site's partnerships with eBay and Amazon.com to find the jersey fans are looking for at a price they can live with.

By combining the power of two online giants, Pro Sports Jersey helps fans and gift buyers make the right choice. The new website went live in early November.
