December 14, 2011

Langley, BC (RPRN) 12/14/11 —
50+ Lifelong Learning Scholarship Sponsored by Impowerage Magazine for Mature Canadian Students

Impowerage Magazine, an online magazine for active older adults, is offering a unique 50+ Scholarship. The $400 grand prize can be used for the applicant's preferred class, whether it's a cooking, photography, or art class, an accredited academic course, or an online course.

There are few scholarship opportunities directly aimed at the 50+ population. The scholarship is meant to encourage lifelong learning whether the applicants are pursuing a degree or simply taking classes for the sake of learning something new and keeping their minds engaged.

"The Impowerage magazine encourages its readers that it's never too late to do anything, and that includes learning something new," says Impowerage editor Kelly Neufeld. "Some applicants have already applied to use the scholarship prize to take a writing class, upgrade certain skills to help them launch a new business and to help them finish a master's degree."

Learning can help mature students pursue their next career move, hobby, or creative passion. As Henry L. Doherty once said, "Be a student so long as you still have something to learn, and this will mean all your life."

Those who are interested in applying can fill out a short application form by December 19th, or simply choose their favorite learning quote from the Impowerage Facebook photo album. Full details can be found at Impowerage.com/Scholarship.
