

Announcing the HigherEd Referral Network (HRN)!

August 30, 2013

Nolensville, TN (RPRN) 08/30/13

— Dissertation101 and The Babb Group are happy to launch a new service for online professors who are experts in consulting, dissertation coaching, thesis writing, statistics, tutoring and more! If you are a professor and looking for side work as a consultant, this network is for you! With times changing in online ed and consolidations/mergers/uncertainty, it's important that we all expand our opportunities — consulting in areas we are experts is a great one. The hard part? Finding people who need help to become your clients. That is where we come in.

HigherEd Referral Network (HRN) is a Members-only Network of higher education faculty looking to expand their consulting and opportunity by receiving leads for writing, resume services, editing, statistics consulting, general education consulting, dissertation coaching and more through a direct lead system.

HigherEd Referral Network Members are provided exclusive opportunities to bid on client inquiries posted in the forum.

All opportunities will be posted for Members in our closed Facebook group.

Contact information for the client will be posted directly.

All network members have the same opportunity to contact the potential client.

All fee arrangements are solely between the client and the Network Member. The Member sets their price with each client.

The 5% commission due to HRN is on an honor system, paid on all revenue earned from that client and due at the time the client pays the Member.

All posted client opportunities may never be shared outside of the group, which will be monitored by HRN.

Types of services to be offered HRN Clients include:

Editing and Writing Services (Grammar/Style/APA/MLA/Etc..)

Dissertation/Thesis Coaching (QUAL/QUAN/Mixed)

Statistics/SPSS

Resume Services

General Educational Consulting
