

Aussie Awarded a Quarter of Places in the Top 100

November 11, 2012

Sydney, New South Wales (RPRN) 11/11/12 — On the back of Aussie's successful first quarter business results, MPA Magazine has revealed that more than one quarter of Australia's top mortgage brokers come from Aussie. With 26 brokers on this list of the nation's best of the best, Aussie placed more than any other for the second year in a row.

"I am very proud of the Aussie team for once again ensuring an impressive representation in the top 100," says executive director, James Symond.

"The 2012 results underpin our commitment to the thorough training, development and ongoing company support to every broker who works with the Aussie brand."

Aussie ensures all of its new and existing brokers are members of the MFAA and are diploma qualified and supported through ongoing business academy training as well as having access to accredited credit coaches, company sourced leads and localised marketing support.

“Our brokers work to the highest possible standards of professionalism and are supported in every way throughout their tenure with Aussie, either as mobile brokers or franchisees with a store. The strong showing in the national top 100 list, coupled with the highest lead, lodgement and settlement figures we have seen since we acquired Wizard, is a testament to us that our holistic approach at Aussie has been a formula for our brokers success,” he continues.
