

Charitable Giving a Priority for Metropolitan Aviation

October 29, 2013

MANASSAS, VA (RPRN)

10/29/13 —

- Metropolitan Aviation, a Virginia-based charter jet service, recently exceeded $100,000 in donations with a $15,000 private golf jet-away package benefitting the New Jersey chapter of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society, an organization striving to help those affected by MS.

“Metropolitan Aviation has experienced significant growth over the past two years and enjoys supporting charitable organizations that are meaningful to the community,” says CEO Alan Cook.

Other recipients of Metropolitan Aviation’s charitable giving program include Meridian Healthcare, the American Health Association, Wounded Warriors, the Joan Hisaoka Gala, the Manassas Ballet Theatre, Blue Grass Charities, and the New York Racing Association. In addition to standard giving, Metropolitan Aviation has also helped charities in reaching their goals by auctioning off private jet airfare.
