05/14/12 — Leading rental site offers up bargain hire deals for sunshine breaks in Greece and Spain this year

With many Brits getting ready to head away to Europe for a sunshine holiday this coming summer, specialist car hire website 121carhire.com can help them to rent a car on a budget. The site, which sources the best deals around from all the top name providers, has this week published new prices for bargain car hire in Corfu, Malaga and other destinations.

Thanks to low-cost airlines today offering cheap flight deals to destinations on the Mediterranean, taking a sunshine holiday in Spain can be done on a budget this summer. The new deals available on 121carhire.com this week are perfectly-timed and offer great deals such as a week's hire from just £9 per day* from Malaga Airport.

121carhire.com can also help people who are thinking of a summer holiday on the Greek Islands to rent a car for less this year. The site has sourced new deals this week from all the top name suppliers like Budget, Europcar, Avis, Hertz and Thrifty - with Corfu Airport deals available from only £16 per day.

Michael Bond, spokesperson for 121carhire.com, says: "Our users rely on us to get them the very best value car rental deals all the time, wherever they are headed to for their holidays. This summer we can help people planning trips to the Greek Islands or Spain to save thanks to some great bargain offers."

About 121carhire.com

121carhire.com has been operating an online car hire service for over 5 years. We recently partnered with carrentals.co.uk as one of their approved car hire services. We do our best to find our customers the cheapest prices on car hire in over 115 countries.

We cover around 15,000 locations and have deals with car rental depots in all major countries and tourist destinations.

Our reservations team are always there to provide help and support when you book with us online. Our online business helps us keep our costs down so we can pass on price savings to you.

We hope you find our booking process easy to use. Once you submit your booking to us, our reservations then prepare your car hire voucher and email it to you. We feel this saves time and money and we are always there to help if anything goes wrong. Your voucher allows the collection desk to identify you and which car you have booked.
