BANGKOK, TH (RPRN) 08/31/12

— Cupid's Library is a newly formed online dating portal with a huge database of dating websites that has a comprehensive list of different dating websites. Every single site is characterized into particular niches and dating categories, which offer users ease in navigating the site or finding the right dating site for them.

The online dating sites listed on Cupid's Library have ratings that are derived from individual ratings and customer comments displayed online. Reviews, customer feedback and clearly displayed site demographics are also included within each dating site.

All the dating website categories are clearly demarcated and the users can check out different websites according to personal preferences such as Asian, African, American, Chinese or even other special religion based dating categories.

Apart from the dating categories and online dating site reviews, dating advice topics can be easily found here through the Cupid's Library dating blog which features posts related to the dating game such as news, advice, and even humorous posts. Information that is all quite beneficial to a reader who uses online dating sites.

Traffic on Cupid's Library seems to grow day by day and visits are generally from people looking for honest reviews or simply information to make a wiser decision in selecting their dating site to register for.
