06/11/12 — Leading online car hire specialist 121Carhire.com

has issued a warning to tourists ahead of this year's London 2012

Olympics - book rental cars well in advance to avoid disappointment.

The website's announcement comes after a jump in advance

bookings with just 50 days to go until the Games.

121Carhire.com says that almost 50% of bookings taken through its website have recently been placed for 20 July to 11 August. New Zealand, Malaysia and Hong Kong are among the distant locations from which car hirers are heading to the UK to enjoy the Olympics.

Michael Bond, spokesperson for 121carhire.com, says, "It's nearly here, just 50 days away. With so many people heading to the UK and to London to enjoy the fun, it's perhaps not surprising that we've seen such a leap in demand for car hire."

"As such we're advising people to book their rental cars as soon as possible to be sure they don't miss out on a good value deal."
