09/18/12 — Animator Dustin Grella of Dusty Studio, New York will premiere his latest short Animation Hotline as a part of the Short Competition at the largest animation festival in North America

After showcasing Animation Hotline at the prestigious Cannes

Film Festival earlier in May 2012, Dustin Grella will make it's premiere in Canada on September 20th at the largest animation festival in North America. The talented animator Dustin Grella spearheads Dusty Studio. He is also the brainchild behind the short film - Animation Hotline that is a series of animations where Grella used crowd-sourced voicemail messages to create content. "I really enjoy this project because most of the time I am struggling to come up with creative ideas for a film, and with the Animation Hotline anyone with a telephone can call and leave their story. It's animated democracy," adds Grella.

The Short is a part of the Short Competition 2.
