

How to be an Uncle Tom (Rules for Success in the United Plantation of America)

May 23, 2013

CLEVELAND, OH (RPRN)

05/23/13 — The most explosive writing since the Willie Lynch Letter. Mozart, a self professed Uncle Tom has written the only self help book of its kind. Mozart Boukman is a reformed outspoken belligerent black man with a chip on his shoulder until some unfortunate life events led him back to the workplace. Motivated with a new attitude and an empty bank account, Mozart perfected the art of boot licking Uncle Tomism, which he is now passing on to the masses.

This book is an all inclusive guide that will have transform the most belligerent brother to a soft shoeing Uncle Tom. You'll be shuffling and towing the line faster than a minstrel number.

How to be an Uncle Tom is a multi-faceted self help guide that satirically teaches the Uncle Tom process all the while exposing many facts, laws, and history that beset blacks to this day. Have you ever heard of George Stinney? What about Drapetomania? Reading this book will enlighten you to many little-known American historical facts and the impact on the black race.

Mozart (not the author's real name due to still soft shoeing at the workplace) is a black man in America - what more is there to say. The book will be released on Amazon.com and available in May 2013.
