12/31/11 — Today, Jason Camper announced the launch of POWDRemix. POWDRemix will provide premium Water Powders to assist consumers with increasing personal energy, improving sleep quality, and weight loss.

"POWDRemix is a beverage giant in the making. It is a very unique company, modeled around a powder based beverage line with top quality beverages in categories that people already have a HUGE interest in.", said Mr. Camper, company Founder and CEO.

Collectively, the POWDRemix Corporate Team has more than 60 years of experience in the Direct Sales industry. Jason Camper is personally bringing 15 years of experience and knowledge in launching some of the largest internet brands to the creation of this company.

During the past six months POWDRemix has been testing and blending products, developing software, and setting up shipping, customer support and commission payout systems.

All of this has been in steady preparation for the official PreLaunch date set to begin on January 6th, 2012.

According to Camper, "All is in order and ready to go."

POWDRemix is privately owned and 100% debt free. Jason Camper chose to self-fund the company because in his words, "POWDRemix truly is, and will always be my greatest work... my masterpiece. POWDRemix will no doubt be one of the largest beverage brands in the coming months and years."

Mr. Camper went on further to state, "Just as Apple created one of the greatest phones of all time after 10,000 cell phones had already been created. We will also find our share of the Billion dollar global beverage industry."

As one of the new multi level marketing companies to qualify as a new mlm 2012 POWDRemix and the Vitality Market Team are uniquely positioned to benefit from the company launch.

The Vitality Market Team is a group of Independent POWDRemix Retailers who have organized to provide marketing training support and tools for its members.
