09/01/13 — The Babb Group, Inc., a California-based educational consulting services organization, provides a new service for online professors and higher education professionals - job application services.

The Babb Group, Inc.

With the industry of higher education rapidly changing and many professors losing their jobs, The Babb Group is offering this service to help professors apply to jobs more quickly and increase the chances of being hired at universities and colleges. By simply forwarding leads to our team, we will quickly and efficiently process applications and help our clients increase their visibility at more universities and schools, saving them time and money.

The Babb Group also offers Curriculum Vitae writing, converting existing resume's into CVs for use in higher education. The Babb Group has partnered up with Dissertation101 to offer the HigherEd Referral Network, another source for educators to earn a living in their area of expertise as coaches, writers, editors, statisticians, tutors and more. The Babb Group offers job leads, social media for online professors and ExclusiveEDU, a full service private group for educators looking to increase their media leads, publish more often, network with other educators and learn about exclusive job leads.
