

Leading UK Private Plate Specialist Offers Fans Chance to Win Latest Kindle Fire HD

December 13, 2012

London, UK (RPRN) 12/13/12 — Catching up with the latest car magazines, flicking through bestsellers, checking out films or browsing Facebook - you could do all this and more thanks to a competition launched by Regtransfers this week. The UK's leading independent private plate specialist is offering visitors to its Facebook page the chance to win the popular tablet, which features a 7 inch screen, and is the world's first tablet with dual antenna, dual-band Wi-Fi and HD streaming.

The competition, which launched on Tuesday 11th December, runs until Monday, 17th December. Entry into the competition couldn't be easier, simply 'like' the Regtransfers Facebook page, answer a Christmas trivia question and enter some basic details.

Marketing manager Angela Banh says: "For one lucky winner, Christmas is definitely going to come early. This great Kindle Fire HD will be a perfect treat for someone. The winner could keep it for themselves, or give it as a fantastic gift for a loved one – although I'm not sure who could bear to give it away!

"This Christmas competition is our way of saying Merry Christmas to our Facebook fans and provides the perfect device on which private plate and car enthusiasts can catch up with the latest magazines, including our very own 'World of Personalised Number Plates', downloadable from our website.

Tablets have become hugely popular in recent years, providing multimedia access 'on-the-go'. Amazon first broke into the marketplace with its popular Kindle e-book reader, and is taking it by storm with the Kindle Fire HD - offering high spec features including HD display with anti-glare technology, high performance 1.2 Ghz dual-core processor and powered graphics core for the serious gamer. It is thin, light and portable and perfect for those whose technical skills are somewhat lacking, as there is no set-up process or software to install.

Angela concluded: "With such a simple entry process, fans would be crazy to miss out on this opportunity. Good luck everyone!"
