Meteorix Makes Key Hire to Drive Canadian Expansion

—Meteorix, a Workday services partner, providing implementations, integrations and post production services, announced today plans to expand to Canada. Industry expert Eric

Fluet joins the company as Vice President, Central and Eastern Canada to drive expansion into Canada.

With expertise in the enterprise software and professional services market Fluet joins senior leader, David Jong, Vice President of Integrations for Meteorix in Canada to strengthen the company's Canadian presence and offering.

Fluet has a successful track record in the Information Technology industry as a business executive and sales leader.

“With a focus on building strong relationships with his customers and colleagues based on trust, integrity and value, Eric’s philosophy and approach is aligned with the core values of Meteorix”, said Sam Spector, Chief Operating Officer at Meteorix.

Fluet will use his understanding of both the US and Canadian markets and their differences to help Meteorix drive aggressive growth and build their Canadian footprint. It has become clear that having an implementation partner with a local presence is important to Canadian businesses. The company is fully committed to establishing offices with both sales and delivery teams in Montreal and Toronto. Bringing Fluet on is an important first step in the process.

“Meteorix has an unwavering commitment to customer satisfaction. Providing a local presence for customers speaks to how invested Meteorix is to the success of their customers. I am thrilled to join a team which holds customers in such high regard,” said Fluet.

Meteorix has offices in Boston, Chicago and recently expanded to Pleasanton, CA. In addition, the company has remote employees across US and Canada.
