02/13/14 — Cook Discussed
Increased Security Measures
Around Sochi Olympics

Alan Cook, founder and CEO of Metropolitan Aviation, a Virginia-based private jet management and charter company, was featured on Saturdays with Siri, a popular Fox News Radio segment, to discuss the aviation industry's need for heightened security when flying to and from Sochi, Russia.

At one point in the interview, Alan clarified whether Metropolitan Aviation had to follow the same TSA-regulations as commercial airliners: "We are following the same procedures as well as taking additional steps that are required to fly into and out of Sochi during the Olympics." You can listen to the rest of the interview on our Facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/MetropolitanAviation>.

Cook, an internationally respected pilot with over 17,000 hours of flight experience and in-depth knowledge of the private aircraft market, is still available for interview on aviation safety and security as it relates to the Sochi Olympics.
