(www.socialeventsexpo.com), hosted at Sequoia at The South Street Seaport.

The Social Events Expo will feature premiere companies that are focused on the lifestyles of typical professional adults ages 21-50! Dating services, young professionals and activities groups, networking organizations, travel and vacation companies, technical resources, fitness, entertainment options, Lifestyle coaches, and much more will be represented in the expo rooms at Sequoia Restaurant. The event will take place from 1pm-7pm with post expo activities planned throughout the night and into the morning! Each company will have representatives on hand to consult, converse and share information with attendees. During this time there will also be demonstrations, classes, panel discussions, scavenger hunts, group lunches and dinners, group tours of the Seaport, speed dating sessions and performances that will be of interest to many.

Expo co-creator Dave Cervini calls the day a “Google search with real live people”! adding “This event is the perfect opportunity for busy young professionals from all backgrounds to come together and expand their social horizons and activity potential”. Co-creator Will Petz points out that “In the city that offers everything, it now offers a place that singles, couples, locals and people new to the city can find things to do and people to do it with”.
