

Philadelphia Promoters (The Heavy Hitters of Comedy) Produces Weekly Comedy Line-Up

August 8, 2014

Philadelphia, PA (RPRN)
08/08/14 — Philadelphia is known for it's comedy venues and for birthing new comedians onto mainstream status. A new conglomerate of comedy promoters, also known as, "The Heavy Hitters of Comedy" will embark on a weekly series of comedy events called Make Me Laff Fridays. New comedians will compete each week for a weekly prize while gaining exposure and having the opportunity to win over the crowd.

This new event series will be held at Park Avenue Banquet Hall in Philadelphia and will premier on Friday, August 8th 2014, and run every Friday night. Each comedian will have five minutes each for their standup routine. The first night will feature local comedians – Tuere, John Phillips, Real Basic, Beazt, and Stax Nificent. This first installment of MMLF will be hosted by Nate the Landlord, one of Philly's rising comedic stars.

Make Me Laff Friday is being brought to you by Raymond Anthony and Friends, a group of Philadelphia based concert/event promoters who have decades of experience in the stand-up comedy circuit. This innovative group plan to bring the best and brightest of new comedians coming out of Philly, New Jersey, Delaware and New York. More info can be found by visiting the group's website – www.laffoutloudllc.com.

Stay tuned for more events by Philadelphia's "Heavy Hitters of Comedy" who will be announcing a few Comedy Explosions scheduled for the next few months. For more information on Make Me Laff Fridays, contact Raymond Anthony @ 215-870-5564.
