The Fall is coming soon to the BBC, and is expected to be a massive hit, but fans of crime TV can pre-order their copy of the hotly anticipated show on DVD right now from Acorn Media.

Brand new crime thriller The Fall is coming soon to the BBC, and is expected to be a huge hit. But fans of the best TV crime shows needn't wait for the show to premiere, because they can pre-order their copy right now from the Acorn Media online store.

The Fall is a race against time between two hunters on opposite sides of the law, and the clock is ticking.

The gripping psychological thriller is written by Allan Cubitt (Prime Suspect 2, The Hanging Gale, The Boys are Back) and stars Gillian Anderson (The X-Files, Great Expectations) as DSI Gibson, a detective seconded from the MET to Belfast in order to review a high profile murder case that the local police can't crack. But Gibson discovers that the case is actually linked to several others, and a serial killer is at large.

Jamie Dornan (Once Upon a Time, Shadows in the Sun) is that serial killer: a twisted young man called Paul Spector who stalks his victims in and around Belfast.

With a combination of big screen cast, and small screen genre thrills, The Fall is expected to be a massive highlight of the BBC's 2013 output, and crime fans can get a head start by pre-ordering their copy of The Fall DVD today from the Acorn Media online store; and receiving this stunning DVD presentation before is released on 17 June 2013.

The Fall DVD features two discs and more than four hours of first rate TV entertainment. Don't miss one of the biggest TV hits of 2013.

Pay a visit to the Acorn Media online store today and pre-order your copy of The Fall on DVD.
