09/13/13 — A new thriller combining a suspenseful crime narrative against the backdrop of the toy industry will be coming out just in time for this year's holiday season. Hal Ross's "The Deadliest Game" intertwines the unthinkable tale of a terrorist plot against U.S. consumers with the scenario of a toy company's proprietary distribution of a new industry groundbreaking electronic game. When forced to make a decision between his own daughter's life and the lives of thousands of other children, Hal's leading protagonist, Blair Mulligan, must make a choice no father should ever have to make.

"The Deadliest Game" by Hal Ross

A toy industry veteran with over thirty-five years experience, Hal offers the reader an insider's perspective of a surprisingly interesting and competitive business. His book reads true, and therefore is all the more frightening.

"The Deadliest Game" will be released as hardcover and eBook on November 6, 2013 and is currently available on pre-order from Amazon.com.
